

DEEP NATURE GUIDES

Tracking, Tending and Questing in Community

Please take some quiet time to respond to these questions as simply or completely as you'd like, then email your answers back to Scott within a week: Scott@DeepNatureGuides.com. This questionnaire will guide your individual engagement in this program and it will help us assess the collective resources and opportunities within our group. Ultimately this questionnaire is for you, so please make the best of it as you see fit. Enjoy!

Your name, email, phone, where you live?

What is tracking to you? Why are you drawn to it?

How would you describe your connection to Nature? What do you do in your life that deeply connects you?

What brings you into your deeply natural self (peaceful, gifted, at home), and how do you know you're there?

What is your intention in tracking this season? What are your learning goals? How can we best support you?

Please briefly share with us any skills, background, or knowledge you have of Nature, ecology, natural history, tracking, tending land, building community, etc.

How did you find this opportunity? Please specify all that apply, such as:

- Email from Scott
- Email from a friend
- Community calendar
- Word of mouth
- Facebook
- MeetUp
- Flyer in town or at event (please be specific)
- Other

Is there anything else you'd like to share with us?